Dear General Walters:

On our way home John Marocchi and I were thankful for the comfort of the sedan and the length of the trip which permitted a short snooze as the requisite aftermath to the gastronomic treat of your lunch. Whereas the briefings we received were highly professional and stimulating, the food and drink reflected your epicurean touch, but also made us lose interest in the rest of the day's activities.

We both had a great time. Enjoyed your hospitality and hope to remember some of your wonderful stories. Dumb as I was concerning your organizational structure, I am now sufficiently enlightened to want to know more. However, before that happens I would hope that you will entertain the thought of a visit to the Central Security Service. Please extend a special thank you to those on your staff who devoted special time and effort to our visit.

Most sincerely,

HERBERT F. WOLFF

Dear General Walters:

Billy and I enjoyed having dinner with you last night. As a matter of fact you were the topic of conversation during our trip back to Fort Meade. We made valiant efforts to recall some of your fascinating stories and, of course, we marveled at your renowned facility with foreign tongues. In a nut shell, with or without the help of Bob Hope, you made it a memorable evening.

As a follow-up to our conversation, please take note that I am scheduled to return from my European visit on or about 3 November. If I allow the first week upon my return, i.e., 6-11 November, to let myself back into the problem, it would permit a visit at your convenience during the week 13-18 November. If your calendar can accommodate that, please have your secretary notify my office and we will have a date.

Again, we had a great evening with you and we look forward to the next opportunity.

Respectfully,
